

Get Assistance Through our Online Programs

Do you want to change your career outlook, but are finding it difficult knowing just where to start?

Whoever you are, and wherever you are, if you have access to the internet, you can get help with your job search, starting your own business, or gaining the web technology and design skills necessary to meet the demands of today's competitive job market.

Make A Change Canada provides flexible and supportive online learning opportunities for Canadians facing barriers to employment. Our virtual classrooms feature everything required for effective learning. From webinars and tutorials, to training modules, videos, and coaching sessions, our experienced service team is here to guide you toward a meaningful and empowered career change.

Online Employment and Self-employment Assistance

Online Certificate Programs in Applied Web Development and Design

Our programs are fundable under available skills training programs (PTIB Exemption; ESDC Certification File No. 7009/13579).

Qualified instructors. Exceptional advisors. Learn online now!